Thank you for your consideration of our beautiful Carmel River Inn for the upcoming Charles Farmer Workshop which is scheduled for March 9-12, 2007.

The Carmel River Inn is situated amid a pastoral river setting, next to Carmel-by-the Sea — famous for its extraordinary charm and breathtaking coastline

Cottages

With cozy cottages tucked into 10 acres of gardens, forest and meadow, the Carmel River Inn offers a relaxing retreat with proximity to the beautiful Big Sur Coast, rugged Carmel Valley and historic Monterey.

A private honeymoon cottage appeals to romantic couples, while larger cottages can accommodate families of up to six people.

Each of our cottages is unique. Several feature a white-picket fence, others a wood-burning fireplace, and some have a kitchenette. All of our cottages are pet-friendly. Each of these eclectic cottages is named for a well-known character in California's colorful history. Among these famous names, you will find such California historical icons as conservationist and photographer Ansel Adams, and controversial author Henry Miller.

The Main Inn

Unwind in one of our peaceful country-style hotel rooms, and relieve the stresses of everyday life. Step out onto the patio or balcony and take pleasure in the sights, sounds, and smells of nature. Overlooking a wooded copse, these hotel rooms enjoy an ambiance of quiet retreat.

Amenities

Whether your stay is one short night or an extended period of time, you will appreciate the convenience of our hotel room amenities. All of the hotel rooms in Carmel River Inn feature a refrigerator, coffee and tea maker, iron and ironing board, and hair dryer. A refreshing swimming pool is available for your summer enjoyment.
